

Contact: Bernadette Baldino, Library Director 203-261-0134
bbaldino@eastonlibrary.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

23rd Annual Book Parade at the Easton Public Library

On Saturday, October 18th, the Friends of the Easton Public Library will present the 23rd Annual Book Parade, an Autumn highlight in Easton. Families, individuals, groups, children and adults are invited to create a costume of your favorite book character(s) and join in the parade.

Parade registration and viewing by the judges begins at 12:30 p.m. at Samuel Staples Elementary School. (Pre-registration forms are also available at the Library and on the Library website, www.eastonlibrary.org.) At 1:00 p.m., the parade will step-off, marching along Morehouse Road from the new Samuel Staples Elementary School to the Library. At the Library, there will be fun activities including pumpkin decorating and crafts as well as refreshments for all. Prizes will be presented for best costumes in a variety of categories. The parade and activities will happen rain or shine.

There is ample parking in the library parking lot, located at the corner of Morehouse and Center Roads, as well as around Town Hall. For directions to the library, please visit our website www.eastonlibrary.org. For additional information, please call the Library at 203-261-0134.

To get advance notice of all library programs, please find us on Facebook, like us, and click on “Get Notifications.”